

Complaints channel - Speak Up

Speak Up is a channel to manage communications on regulatory violations and to fight corruption. Through it, you can send communications about breaches or irregularities of the organization's internal rules. Also, infringements or omissions of EU rights, financial interests, or criminal or administrative infringements of the Spanish legal framework.

Complaints can be made to employees of the organization, collaborators, suppliers, partners, patrons and other third parties related to the Foundation.

Complaints can be sent through the mailboxes speakup@fpmaragall.org / speakup@barcelonabeta.org or by mail anonymously at the address C/ Wellington, 30, 08005 Barcelona, to the attention of the Head of the Internal Information System.

Once the complaint has been received, the process of reception, admission and investigation will begin.
